

The SPPS 2009 Fund for Teacher Grants recipients. Over the last seven years SPPS, in partnership with The Saint Paul Foundation and the National Fund for Teachers has provided teachers the opportunity to enrich their lives, rejuvenate their passion for learning and then pass that passion on to their students in the fall. Congratulations to this year's 12 recipients who are off for a summer adventure in learning to every corner of the world:

(Paul Creager located second from the left in the bottom row.)

One of our own, Paul Creager, English Teacher is off to London, England to do a documentary film in the English classroom.